James W. Broom

June 19, 1884 - May 17, 1926

James W. Broom was the first president of Delta State University, originally known as Delta State Teachers College. He married Patti Maud Baston of Wiggins on July 1, 1922; the couple had no children. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1912 from Millsaps College. Before his appointment as president, Broom served as assistant state superintendent of education from 1917 to 1925. Upon his arrival to Delta State, he began to select faculty members, who proved to be exceptional. Delta State Teachers College officially opened its doors on Tuesday, September 15, 1925, when students were allowed to move into dormitories. During the first year, a total of 228 individuals attended Delta State.

President James Broom had started the new college on a successful path, but he was unable to see the results of his vision and work. Before the end of the first school year, he became ill and was rushed to the Baptist Hospital in Memphis, where he died on May 17, 1926, from an ear infection and subsequent mastoid ear surgery. Therefore, in remembrance of an exceptional president, the student body named the yearbook after him. To this day the yearbook is still known as The Broom.

Margaret Jo Moore Rutledge

May 5, 2002

The Broom 2004 staff dedicates this yearbook, with great honor, to Margaret Rutledge. In 1994, Delta State hired Margaret as an assistant professor of interior design with the art department, where she was tenured. She was an active member of several organizations, which include National Council of Interior Design Qualifications, Interior Design Educator Council, as well as American Society of Interior Designers. She was a loving, devoted mother, wife and teacher. Her interests included gardening, with a love for growing beautiful roses at her home. She also enjoyed photographing her children. Each one of her students knew how important her children were because of her shrine of photos and all their artwork which hung in her office. I speak for all of her students when I bring up Spring Break 2002. Her family was taking a trip to Disney World, and like her kids, her students were just as involved in the "big countdown" until they left. She was not just a mother to her children, but to her students as well. If there is one image that sticks out in all of our minds today... it is that Mrs. Rutledge is re-designing the gates of Heaven. To Jamie, Grace and Ryan, thank you for sharing such a great wife and mother with us. She will never be forgotten. Thank you Mrs. Rutledge for being so great to all of us. We miss you.

State Capitol Welcomes DSU Students to Annual Luncheon

Thirty Delta State students and administrators traveled to the State Capitol Building in Jackson on March 6 for the 2003 DSU Brown Bag Luncheon. Jan Parker, the SGA governmental affairs committee chair, coordinated this very successful event. The students and administrators present were able to discuss issues concerning the state with their local senators and representatives. Secretary of State Eric Clark, as well as many other members of the state legislature, visited with the students. After enjoying a nice lunch furnished by the DSU cafeteria, the students were also given the opportunity to observe the State Senate in session.

A Cry to be Heard

from our campus to the world

The campus was everything but peaceful on March 5 as students gathered to voice their opinions on the impending war with Iraq. The students and faculty on the Quad were present to protest the possible war, while another group of students stood on the balcony of the Union to show their support for President Bush. Signs such as "Education Not Annihilation," "Drop Bush, Not Bombs," and "Honk for Peace" could be seen on the quad, while signs reading "Support our President," "We Support our Troops," and "Desperate Times Call for Desperate Measures" were visibly hanging from the Union. There were a number of speakers present for the event, such as Debra Johnson, a Memphis resident who spent time in Iraq and saw first hand the conditions that exist there, as well as DSU faculty Garry Jennings, William Hays and James Tomek. Students were also given the freedom to express their views on the situation. Rachelle Ellis pointed out, "The point of this protest is not to upset, but to increase the level of compassion for Delta State," and Jamie Kemp expressed, "A lot of people are saying we are unpatriotic, but in reality we are patriotic because we care about the country's condition and embrace the right to protest." Those protesting for peace were not the only ones able to speak their minds. Josh West stated, "Americans should support President Bush and the just process," while Paul Foxworthy reminded everyone of the tragic events of September 11, 2001. Regardless of the stance taken by those in attendance, it was a demonstration of freedom among our students; they demonstrated their freedom of speech and their right to be heard.

Hall of Fame

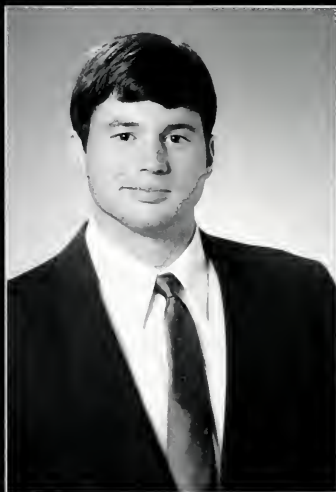

The Delta State University Hall of Fame was started in 1972 to recognize those students who have made outstanding achievements in all areas of college life. It is the single highest honor bestowed upon any student at Delta State. The 2002-2003 inductees are Christopher Michael Booker, John Terrell Colenberg, Christopher Ray Gurner, Laurel Anjanette Pennington, Jeremy Allen Pittman, Amanda Cossey Price, James Oliver Turner, Lauranne Jennings Vance, and James Grover Thornell, Jr.

Cabinet

The Delta State SGA Cabinet is a group of distinguished students who put their time and effort into improving the Delta State campus and campus life. This group is composed of six elected officers and ten appointed members. Each year they are responsible for campus elections, such as homecoming and class favorites. They also sponsor campus wide programs, such as the memorial service for September 11, 2001.

Graduation

For most of us, this is the close of an important chapter in our lives. Most will go into the professional world to seek out a promising career while others will seek to further their education even more. No matter what we do after graduation, we will always have fond memories of the years we've spent together at Delta State. No doubt, one of the best memories for the class of 2003 will be graduation.

Delta State University averages between 800 to 1,000 graduates each year. There are two graduation ceremonies that are held at the end of the fall and spring semesters. "The world we are in is changing around us," said Rep. Steve Holland, D-Plantersville, as he gave a few words of wisdom at the Spring 2003 commencement. "Don't be so busy making a living, that you don't live," said Dr. Jimmie "Rose" Strahan while giving a few life tips to the Fall Class of 2003. Dr. Strahan is the first ever faculty member chosen to speak at a DSU commencement.

Delta State's New President

On June 28, 2003, after several months of tedious searching and interviewing, The Institutions of Higher Learning Board of Trustees selected Dr. John Hilpert as Delta State University's 7th president. Prior to becoming President of DSU, Dr. Hilpert served as President of Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota; Vice President for College Advancement at Thiel College in Greenville, Pennsylvania; and Executive Assistant to the President at Finlandia University in Hancock, Michigan. He officially began his work at DSU in early September.

Dr. Hilpert holds a Bachelors of Arts and a Masters of Divinity from Concordia Senior College and a Doctorate in Higher Education from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Dr. Hilpert's wife, Pat, is a registered nurse and a published award-winning photographer. The couple have three sons.

Baseball

The Delta State Baseball team finished the season winning 50 games for a third consecutive season. The Statesmen's 52 wins marked the second most in school history. The Statesmen fell just one game short of reaching the Division II World Series.

Basketball

Brandon Dickerson averaged team high 17.5 points and pulled down 4.1 rebounds per game. He also had 61 assists and 47 steals and shot 50 percent from the floor and 44 percent from behind the three-point arc.

Softball

Joy Long, Jennifer Meeks and Meredith Coleman all hit at the .400 mark for the season. Long led the team with a .403 average and was named to the Academic All-American team.

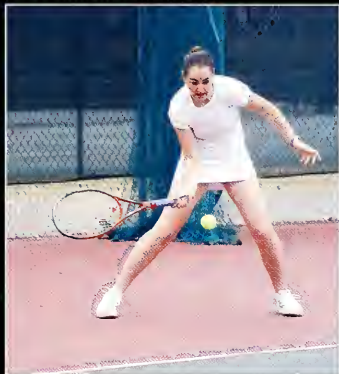

Basketball

Mabus becomes the fourth Lady Statesmen to be named GSC Freshman of the Year. The Lady Statesmen finished the season 18-8 and 10-6 in GSC play.

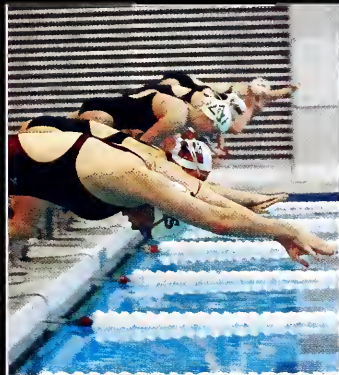

Tennis

The Lady Statesmen finished 11th in the nation. They advanced to the South Region finals for a second straight year. They finished the season with a record of 22-4. The Statesmen tennis team, who finished the season with a 13-6 overall record, played in a regional for the third time in four seasons.

Golf

The Delta State Golf team captured the Derrall Foreman Classic last year. Kenny Lasager shot a final round two under 70 to finish the tournament nine under and claim medalist honors to help Delta State to claim the tournament title.

Swimming

The Delta State University Men's Swimming and Diving team won its third consecutive New South Intercollegiate Swim Conference title. This was the Statesmen's fifth conference crown in school history.

The Delta State University Ladies Swimming team trailed by as many as 74 points in the New South Intercollegiate Swimming Conference tournament but eventually overtook Ouachita Baptist for another title.

Orientation

Saved by the Bell

“Delta Discovery” is an organization which provides several orientation programs for freshman and transfer students new to our campus. The program allows new students to get acquainted with DSU faculty, staff, administrators, and campus life. Several orientation sessions are sponsored by the university including three freshman sessions, two transfer student sessions, and a session geared toward parents of new students.

The orientation program is headed by the Division of Student Affairs and includes some of Delta State’s finest students: Sayward Ely, Jeffery Farris, Lindsey Farris, Jolana Gibbs, Abby Hentz, Jessica Johnson, Ann Marie Mayers, David Myers, Lindsey Neyman, Patric Ragon, Louis Rocconi, Sissi Robinson, Erin Selvy, Lauranne Vance, and Josh West.

Students who attended the program enjoyed icebreakers, skits performed by the staff, and a hilarious performance by comedy hypnotist “The Sandman.” Students were also able to pre-register for fall classes and get information on financial aid, the health center, college life and much more. Delta State is a great school and this program gives us a chance to prove it.

GREEK WEEK

Greek week was held April 21-24. There were activities planned for each day of the week, in which IFC, Panhellenic, and Panhellenic associations participated. Monday was a day of fun and games on the quad as each chapter gathered for a cookout wearing their letters. On Tuesday patriotism could be seen campus wide as everyone wore their red, white, and blue. Members also brought patriotic boxes, tied yellow ribbons to trees on the quad, and participated in a blood drive. The much anticipated multi-cultural step show was held on Wednesday, and a dance was also held to raise money for Jailyn Smith, a young girl diagnosed with leukemia. Everything came to a close on Thursday with a picnic on the Quad for Earth Day, and the Greek banquet, which was held that night. Amanda Yancey of Delta Delta Delta was selected Greek goddess, and Jeffrey Farris of Kappa Alpha was selected Greek god. These titles were selected by a penny war, in which over one thousand dollars was raised for the shipping of the patriotic boxes and for Jailyn Smith. It was, by far, an awesome week!

Volunteering with Habitat

Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit Christian organization that hopes to achieve a world with less poverty and homelessness. Needy families submit applications to their local Habitat office. From those applications, Habitat chooses a family based on need and willingness to become partners in the program.

The houses built through this program are not free. The family has to pay a monthly mortgage, however they are not charged interest. Another requirement for having a Habitat house is the family must put hours of "sweat-equity" into their own home and the homes of other families.

Habitat for Humanity is a wonderful opportunity for people to get involved and volunteer in the community. Habitat invites people of all backgrounds, races, and religions to help build the houses together. Many organizations on campus, such as Alpha Eta Rho, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha and Mrs. Alinda Sledge's social work class, have volunteered their time to this program.

Springfest 2003

Delta State's annual Spring Fest was held on April 10, 2003, on the Quad in the center of campus, and the nightly band performed in the Walter Sillers Coliseum. The activities outside included an inflatable rock climbing wall, a jousting match, and human bowling. A caricature artist was available, as well as a key chain keeper booth. During the day, DJ Trac Vance was on the Quad to provide music to students enjoying the day's festivities. That evening, the band Retrospect opened for the platinum selling artists Sister Hazel, who's hits include Champagne High, All For You, Change Your Mind, and Your Mistake.

Pig Pickin'

Pig Pickin', an annual event sponsored by the DSU Alumni Association, was held on September 20, before the second home football game. Shumate Park was filled with activity as tents were set up by different student organizations and local DSU supporters. Crowds of people showed up to support the team and enjoy a little time with friends and some good food. There were cooking competitions, a spirit filled pep rally featuring the Delta State Band, cheerleaders, the Delta Belles, and a lengthy walk-through line to show support as the football team entered the park. It was a day to rest, relax, cheer, dance, and most of all to enjoy barbeque lunches with friends and family.

Welcome Week

Welcome Week is designed to welcome all of the new freshmen and transfer students to the fun and exciting campus life at Delta State. This year's Welcome Week was kicked off with air brush tattoos in the Union on Monday. To keep with tradition, the students were invited to the annual Ice Cream Social at the President's home on Tuesday; and on Wednesday, students enjoyed an organization fair, a movie, and a recital at the BPAC. The week came to an exciting close on Thursday night as the band Hip Boot Joe performed in the Whitfield Gym.

Homecoming

Delta State's 2003 annual Homecoming activities were a huge success. The week was packed with fun-filled events. On Monday, the lip-sync contest was held on the Quad, where the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity won. Twister and tug-of-war were held on Tuesday, and the winners were the Pikes and Phi Mu. Wednesday's activity included the band Whild Peach, but was shut down due to noise complaints from nearby Cleveland residents. The Homecoming parade was held at 10 a.m. on Saturday. The Delta Delta Delta Sorority won 3rd place in the float decoration contest, the Kappa Delta's 2nd, and the Kappa Alpha's took home the 1st place prize. During halftime of the football game, the Homecoming court was presented and Sayward Eli was crowned Homecoming Queen of Delta State University 2003. The football team gave the Harding Bisons the Delta Blues with a 38-21 victory.

SAYWARD ELY & JEFFREY FARRIS

Jeffrey Farris is a senior education major from Brandon. He is very involved on campus. Jeffrey is a member of Kappa Alpha Order Fraternity, vice president of Student Alumni Association, Union Program Council, secretary of Intrafraternity Council, Delta Diplomats, Athletic Council, Student Government Cabinet, Athletic Ambassador and Senate. He served as an Orientation Leader in 2002 and 2003. Jeffrey also plays tennis for Delta State and in 2001, he was awarded the freshman player of the year.

Sayward Ely is a senior English major from Memphis, Tenn. She is greatly involved at DSU. She is President of SGA, Homecoming Queen, a member of Phi Mu Fraternity, Omicron Delta Kappa, Delta Diplomat, Order of Omega, Reformed University Fellowship, Catholic Student Association, LIT English Honor Society and Phi Alpha Theta history honor society. Sayward also served as Delta Discovery Orientation Leader in 2002 and 2003.

Miss DSU

One Singular Sensation

Four Delta State students competed for the title of Miss Delta State University 2003. The theme of this year's pageant was "One Singular Sensation," a Broadway tribute. Jolanna Gibbs of Greenville, Shannon Hutton of Clarksdale, Marion Weeks of Drew, and Mistie Williams of Ponotoc, competed for a chance to represent DSU at the Miss Mississippi Pageant this summer. All contestants were judged on evening wear, talent, swimsuit and interview.

The pageant was produced by the University Pageant Board and sponsored by the Student Government Association. Mrs. Linda Ross was the executive director of the pageant.

In addition to Lesli Bacon, the reigning Miss DSU, Chris Booker, Jake Cantrell, Pete Golding, John Weaver, Arvelle Hodge, Tuffy Keenan, and Amanda Yancey were featured in this year's musical entertainment program.

When It Rains, It Pours

The school year would not be complete without at least one day of wading through water to get to class. A little water never stopped a Delta State student. Even on a cold November day like this one, DSU students simply pull out the proper flood attire, shorts and a pair of flip-flops, and swim to class. The guys enjoy the flood days as well, because it gives them the chance to prove exactly what their trucks are made of. While some students found the flood to be a perfect excuse to stay in the bed, others simply could not resist rolling up their pants legs, taking off their shoes, and splashing in the lakes of water that accumulated over night.

Dorm Life

Dorm life is an experience like no other. There are very few quite moments, but the fun times and the memories made are worth the occasional headaches. While students gain a sense of independence by living in the dormitories, there are still some simple guidelines and rules that must be followed. Living in the dorms also allows students to know more of what is going on around campus and, most importantly, make friendships that will last a lifetime.

Commuter Life

Delta State students commute anywhere from ten minutes to an hour or more every day to come to classes. These students have to deal with finding parking places and waiting for what seems like hours at cross walks. While all of this can be a headache, many students enjoy commuting because it allows them to have more freedom and living space. Delta State also has a large number of nontraditional students who commute to and from class every day. If it is possible to look past the dorm students stealing commuter parking places and the parking tickets that are inevitable, the commuter life can be a wonderful experience as well.

Fitness Center

The Delta State Fitness Center, which is located in Wyatt Gym, is maintained under the supervision of the Director of Recreation and Wellness Activities. It contains a wide variety of fitness equipment. For those who simply want to do a cardiovascular workout, it contains six Quinton treadmills, seven stationary bikes, and three types of Stairmasters. Also, because no fitness center would be complete without a selection of weight machines and free weights, there are two styles of weight machines available, Cybex and Body Master, and a large selection of Kinko dumbbells for those who want to work out with free weights. It is also equipped with televisions and a sound system for the entertainment of those who are working out. The fitness center is open at different times throughout the day to accommodate the different schedules and preferences of those who choose to take advantage of this excellent facility, which is free for all of Delta State's faculty, staff, and students.

Night Life

Although Cleveland is a small college town, Delta State students are far from deprived of the excitement of "night life." When the school day is over and the tests are finished, it is time to put away the books and have a little fun. Most nights, DSU students can be found hanging out with their friends at local Cleveland restaurants, such as Guad, The Pickled Okra, Tin Roof, Bellazar's, or Crawdad's. Night Moves and Adolph's are also popular, especially when the entertainment includes favorites like Inner 61 or The Gabby Johnson Band.

Intramurals

There's nothing like a little friendly competition. Intramural games can be fun whether you're a Greek or an independent. No matter if you like football, soccer, softball, bowling, or even ping pong, everyone can find a sport to play. Intramurals are a fun and exciting way to keep students involved and interacting with others. If playing the wide variety of sports just isn't your thing, support is always needed.

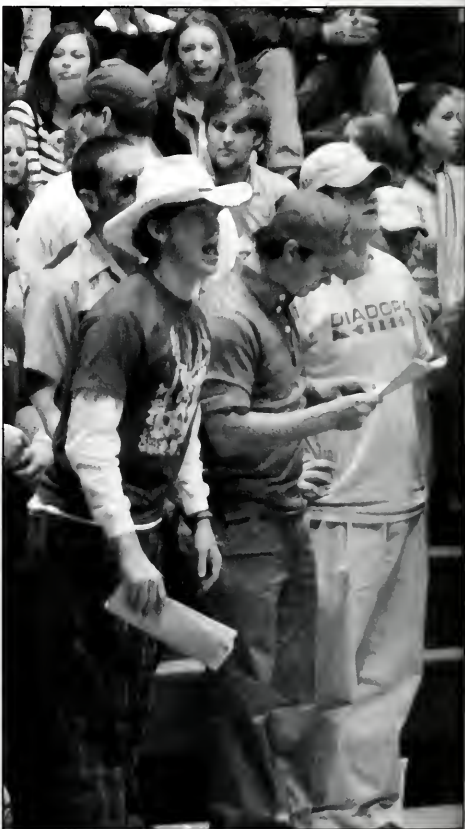

Student Life

College would be great if you didn't have to go to class. Student life is what some consider college to be all about. Between socializing in the Union or attending UPC Programs, the Delta State student has many activities to keep them busy. Relaxing on the Quad has always been an all time favorite for passing time. Spring Fest, Pig Pickin, and Delta State's many athletic programs liven up the campus with fun and exciting ways to get together with a few of your friends.

Work Study & RSE

The Federal Work Study program provides jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to pay education expenses. Approximately 300 students are awarded work study at Delta State each year. Most of those students work 8-10 hours per week at minimum wage.

According to Financial Aid, Regular Student Employment (RSE) gives approximately 100 students the opportunity to work in a department on the Delta State University campus. RSE eligibility, unlike Federal Work Study, is not based on the income of the student and the student's family. Many departments on campus have RSE positions.

Men & Women's Soccer

A Goal In Sight

Delta State University welcomed Men and Women's Soccer programs in the fall of 2003. Both squads held intense try-outs and made an impression on Delta State sports. The men's team held the first ever soccer scrimmage for fans for a brief time during halftime of a Delta State football game. The Women and Men's teams both consisted of twenty players on their roster.

In the very first soccer match at Delta State, the Lady Statesmen lost 4-0 to Northwest Community College. The Lady Statesmen were down 1-0 at the half. They showed defense would be their strong point during the season.

It's finally done! Working on the yearbook was probably the most challenging project in my entire college career. I don't think I could've gotten through this without all of my prayers being answered. Thank you so much to my awesome staff for coming to class and helping extra hours to finish deadlines. To my Advisor, Bill Moses, I know that I tend to stress just a little when I have a lot to do and I know that I drove you crazy...but thank you so much for helping me get through this. I would also like to thank my assistant editor, Mallory Smith; copy editor, Missy Suttle; sports editor, Jud Thigpen; and photo editor, Tara Wilson. I really could not have done all this without y'all. Also, I want to thank my family and friends for understanding how much work this was and encouraging me the rest of the way. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to put this book together and watch just about everything that took place at Delta State. I hope this book provides many memories that will last a lifetime.

Delta State means so much to me, I have learned so much, met so many great friends and made so many memories that I will never forget. The faculty and staff are so great and have made a great impression in my life and I will remember that always. Thanks for the great memories!
